Women for Jury Duty

NARBERTHITES APPEAR AMONG THE LARGE NUMBER DRAWN.

The names of 58 women and 182 men have been drawn for jury duty at the February session of Criminal and Civil Court at Norristown.

Included in the list of the names of women are those of five residents from Lower Merion Township, who will have to answer when their names are called in the court rooms of the county court house.

The ladies from Lower Merion escaped being called to serve on the Grand Jury and only one will have to attend Criminal Court, while the other four will attend Civil Court.

Two members of the gentler sex from Norristown, Mary A. Kiernan and Elizabeth M. Murphy, have been called for Grand Jury duty.

Seventeen women have been called to act as Petit Jurors during Criminal Court and Elizabeth Snyder, of Ardmore, is the only woman from this section in this list.

Miss Aimee E. Kendall, of the Floyd Apartments, is the first Bryn Mawr woman to have her name drawn for jury duty. Miss Kendall will have to answer to the jury roll call at the opening of the second week of Civil Court, on Monday morning, March 7. When informed that her name was listed among the jurors Miss Kendall was much surprised. She said she had been away on her vacation at the time for registration last year and was disappointed in not being able to vote. She could not understand how her name had been placed in the jury wheel, but when she receives the official notice from the Sheriff she will answer it and be ready to do her duty when she is wanted. Miss Kendall is engaged in the hair dressing business, is an experienced business woman and with her pleasing personality will be able to perform her important duty of citizenship in a most satisfactory manner.

The other three women from Lower Merion are Laura S. Hopper, Marie Hamilton and Jesse Hannis Perot. They have all been drawn to serve as traverse jurors at the session of Civil Court, which opens on Monday, February 28.

The names of the men from Lower Merion and Narberth who will have the honor of serving on the first juries in the county with the women folk are as follows:

Criminal Court.

Grand Jury, February 14—John H. Seal, Arthur M. Wilson, William J. Henderson, Carden Warner, Jefferson D. Yowell.

Petit Jury, February 14—Thomas H. Barker, Howard E. Davis, John H. Supplee, L. H. Trotter.

Civil Court.

Traverse Jury, February 28—John B. Alker, Harry W. Brown, W. Frank Baer, H. H. Collins, Jr., John A. Caldwell, Ralph Green, Sidney Morgan.

Traverse Jury, March 7—John A. Miller, George H. Roberts, James L.

Narberth Has Hold-Up

Bag Snatcher Puts Place into Metropolitan Class

Narberth experienced its first hold-up a few nights ago, when Mrs. Ethel E. Price was attacked in front of her home, Narberth and Price Avenues, and her handbag wrested from her. The thief fled, easily outdistancing his victim, who pursued him for a block, calling for help.

The hold-up occurred at 6:15 P. M., at an hour when crowds of commuters are homeward bound from Narberth station. The man followed Mrs. Price from the station, apparently not noticing her. As she crossed the street he crossed also, and when she quickened her pace, he suddenly sprang at her, snatching the bag.

Attention All Ex-Service Men

A representative of the Philadelphia Recruiting Office, will be at the Headquarters of the American Legion, at Narberth, Pa., Friday, Feb. 18th, 1921, for the purpose of issuing Victory Medals.

All that is necessary to receive a medal is to present your honorable discharge. Representative will be at Legion Rooms, Narberth, Pa., from noon until 8:00 P. M.

Relatives of men who died in the service can make application for medal by applying at Legion Rooms, Narberth, Pa., and giving the man in charge the necessary information.

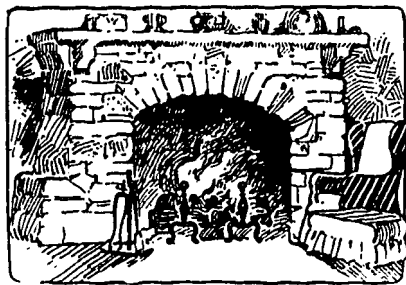

New Baby's Mother Juror

Three-Weeks-Old Cynwyd Girl May Get Her Excused

Mrs. Russell D. Hamilton, of Cynwyd, mother of a three-weeks-old girl, has just been called for jury duty in Montgomery County. It is said she will ask the court to excuse her because little Miss Marie Hamilton demands most of her time just now.

Miss Elizabeth Snyder, of Ardmore, executive secretary of the Main Line Citizens' Association, was the first woman drawn as a juror from Lower Merion township. She has been summoned for service at the session of the criminal court, which begins on February 14, in Norristown.

Three other Main Line women have been called for jury service in the civil courts. They are Mrs. Harry S. Hopper, of Narberth; Mrs. L. Knowles Perot, of Bala, and Miss Aimee Kendall, of Bryn Mawr.

THE FIRESIDE

The Community Club extends its thanks to the Public School for the use of curtains on January 25.

A Home Bake was held last Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Primary Department of the Presbyterian Sabbath School.

The High School Athletic Association Dance, which was held in the Auditorium of the High School, last Saturday evening, was largely attended.

The Calendar of Coming Events appearing in Our Town from week to week, is quite interesting, and the advantages offered are free.

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, of Chestnut Avenue, entertained Mrs. Charles C. Collins, of the Philadelphia Matinee Musical Club, at dinner on Wednesday.

Mr. William Livingston, of Chestnut Avenue, is recovering from a serious operation performed on Tuesday, at the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia.

The Community Club expresses, through the columns of Our Town, its appreciation to Mr. Robert Nash for his assistance in supplying the stage equipment on Tuesday, and for services rendered.

On Tuesday, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor entertained at luncheon, Mrs. R. J. Hamilton and Mrs. W. T. Abell, of Ardmore; Mrs. A. K. Gregory, of Cynwyd, and Mrs. W. H. Russell, of Ambler.

State Enforcing Dog License Law

Enforcement of the State's dog license law began in Pennsylvania Monday, when justices of the peace returned blanks and other supplies to county treasurers. Hereafter only county treasurers will issue the licenses, although justices may accept applications.

Women's Community Club

A DRAMATIC MEETING.

The Community Room was well filled on Tuesday afternoon to meet Lord Dunsany through a play given by the club talent. The committee had devised an attractive stage effect at one end of the room. Prior to the play Mrs. Robert Wood gave a sketch of Lord Dunsany; Mrs. P. T. Van Auker read "The Wonderful Window," and Mrs. N. Southworth read "Polttarnes, Belholder of Ocean." As the curtains were drawn a poet was seen in conversation with a prattler. They continue to argue, Prattle trying to convince Poet to give up his ideals, as they will produce no money; and Poet even exhibits his screened altar of fame to convince Prattle he has a noble ideal. Prattle even jests over this, and leaves, advising Poet to take a rest from his work. Poet, now left alone, takes his latest sonata to his altar as his greatest hope to achieve fame. He then soliloquizes for some time over his poverty without fame following years of toil, and going to his altar in desperation, there finds fame has taken form.

Fame is very familiar and uncouth, telling the Poet's various domestic habits to the populace, which is unwelcome to the young artist. But in spite of his protests, Fame settles herself in a chair, declaring she has come to stay.

During the social hour following, Prattle (Mrs. Robert Wood), Fame (Mrs. Robert Nash), and Poet (Mrs. Joseph Barclay), were kept busy receiving congratulations. The "Polttarnes," whoever they may have been, deserve honorable mention.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Wood, Chairman of Literature. Mrs. Wood is developing a very attractive literary department to the Club, not only in entertainment, but in the Monday morning reading class.

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, the Club President, brought some distinguished club guests to the meeting. They were Mrs. W. T. Abel and Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, President and former President of the Ardmore Club; Mrs. A. K. Gregory, President of the Cynwyd Club, and Mrs. W. H. Russell, formerly of the Narberth Club and now of both Narberth and Ambler Clubs. These guests all brought greetings from their home clubs to the Narberth Club.

Mrs. Noel Butler was soloist for the afternoon, rendering "Springtime of Love" and "Mother Machree."

Mrs. M. F. Alexander was hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Howard Cotter, Mrs. G. Merritt Davis, Mrs. Arthur Edrop, Mrs. Edward Gillis, Mrs. Edward S. Haws, Mrs. Charles Kreamer, Mrs. Daniel Leitch, Mrs. F. O. Peacock, and Mrs. George B. Sefton.

MONDAY MORNING LITERATURE CLASS.

At the Monday morning class Agnes Repplier's "Strayed Prohibitionist" and "The Beloved Sinner" were read and discussed. There was an article read on Mark Twain, and several clippings regarding our various modern authors. From Robert Frost's "Mountain Interval" were read the poems entitled "The Road Not Taken," "Telephone," "Time to Talk," and "Sound of the Trees." This more than filled the hour. The members were requested to bring clippings from periodicals regarding our modern authors to the next meeting. The membership of the class is small, but very enthusiastic. Any club member who is interested in literature is missing an instructive class in being absent. 12 Avon Road every Monday morning.

DANCING CLASS.

The dancing classes are continuing regularly. If you want fun, it is the place to go. If you want to dance, it is the place to go.

The Adult Dancing Class holds its next meeting on Friday, February 4, at 7:45 P. M.

CHORAL SOCIETY.

The Friday afternoon rehearsals will be held during the month of February at the residence of Mrs. Howard Hoffman, 235 Essex avenue.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness. LEGION NOTES.

The next Legion Dance will be held on Friday evening, February 1st. For dance music it is hard to find anything better than that played by the orchestra at these dances.

CONGRESS GETS BILL FOR ARMISTICE DAY HOLIDAY.

Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, has introduced a bill in Congress to make Armistice Day, November 11, a national holiday. The National Convention of the American Legion at Cleveland adopted a resolution indorsing this proposal.

Senator Penrose also has introduced in the Senate the same bill as Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, entered recently in the House of Representatives, providing for the return of the body of an unidentified soldier from France for interment in the amphitheatre of Arlington National Cemetery.

NEW MEMBERS.

Seven new members have been enrolled in the Post for the year of 1921.

BUILDING AND LOAN.

Do not forget that the Building and Loan Association meets next Tuesday evening, February 1st, at 7 o'clock.

USE OF LEGION HOME.

The club house has been fixed up and is now furnished. The Legion members should take advantage of the opportunity to have a place to spend their spare hours.

U. S. GOVERNMENT LIFE INSURANCE.

Only two monthly premiums necessary with application to reinstate and convert your War Risk (Term) Insurance.

The five-year period, if you reinstate only, has not commenced, because it depends upon the date of the termination of the war as declared by proclamation of the President of the United States.

Editorial

Residents of the Main Line will have an opportunity on Wednesday evening, February 2nd, to hear the first hand impressions of Fullerton L. Waldo, Associate Editor of the Public Ledger, who returned recently from a tour of Transcaucasia, where he was sent as a commissioner of the Near East Relief.

The meeting, which is being arranged by the Main Line Near East Relief Committee, will take place in the Women's Club Building at Ardmore. No tickets are required and an invitation to the public has been issued in all the churches.

Co-operating is the Main Line General Fraternal Committee of which R. J. Hamilton, President of the Merion Title and Trust Company, is chairman. Mr. Hamilton is desirous of placing the cause of the Near East Relief before every organization in the Main Line section and in a letter which he issued, he declared that "it is difficult for the citizens of our safe and guarded Main Line to imagine the roads between Philadelphia and Harrisburg filled with women and children homeless, helpless and dying from hunger. On the other side of the world," he continued, "somewhere between Kars and Alexandropol, there are 200,000 human beings in just this terrible plight—a few of the hundreds of thousands who must be fed."

Benjamin H. Ludlow will preside as chairman of the meeting and announcements of the affair have been spread broad-cast through the following towns of the Main Line: Overbrook, Merion, Narberth, Wynnewood, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Rosemont, Villa Nova, Radnor, St. Davids, Wayne, Strafford, Berwyn, Devon, Paoli and Malvern.

Following Mr. Waldo's talk, there will be a motion picture depicting actual scenes. Among the fraternal organizations that will send representatives are: Order of Independent Americans, Knights of the Golden Eagle, Independent Order Odd Fellows, I. O. O. F. Encampment, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, Improved Order of Red Men, F. & A. M. Masons, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Fraternal Patriotic Americans, Sons of Veterans, and the Order United American Mechanics.

Mr. Waldo declared in a recent interview that "Armenia is a matter of grave concern to all Americans who care and do look beyond their own land. The sight of these thousands of children, clad, fed and trained, is one that I wish all generous American givers might behold. But a shadow—and a very dark shadow it is—is the pressure of the Bolsheviks on the east, and the Turkish on the west, who threaten to eat up the infant population of the Republic. Armenia has almost no fuel and for the adult population, little food for the coming winter. The country had a good crop this summer, but it could not be harvested because all the able-bodied men, with a few exceptions, were mustered into military service."

Perhaps they should have called the Narberth Detective Bureau.

The following appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer, of January 24th:

New York Fire Chief's Request Stumps Detective Bureau

They still have an idea in New York is a small town. For instance:

At 11:45 last night the telephone in the Detective Bureau rang and William Engle, in charge at the time, picked up the receiver.

"Hello. Is this the Detective Bureau?" queried a voice that sounded far away.

"Yes."

"Well, this is Captain McGarmon of the New York Fire Department talking. I wish you would get 'Bob' Edgar and have him call me up."

"Who's 'Bob' Edgar?" asked the perplexed Engle.

"Why, gee gosh! Don't you know 'Bob'? He's a friend of mine. Everybody knows Bob?" You won't have any trouble finding him. He lives in Philadelphia, North Philly, somewhere I think. Thank you. Good bye."

Engle spent an hour and a half on the city and telephone directories and then gave up the search.

"That captain must think this is the corner grocery store," said Engle.

COUNTY SPENT A MILLION

Commissioners Discuss Tax Rate Boost and Bond Proposal Soon.

During 1920, Montgomery County got rid of more than a million dollars. The County Controller's office has figured that it cost $1,292,462.42 for expenses during the year, leaving quite a measly looking balance for a nest egg for 1921.

The balance, according to the advance report, will be only about $125,000, and most of this will be disposed of before the end of the present month. Last year's balance carried from 1919 was about $340,000.

The question of an increased tax rate or issuance of bonds to carry on special projects has been placed before the commissioners. Vice President Harman Y. Brady has declared that additional funds must be secured, whether the tax method or bond system is employed.

Of the total running cost of the county, $94,589.62 was for the county almshouse and $29,583.02 for the prison.

WOMEN JURORS DESERVE PRAISE

From the Ardmore Chronicle

The first two weeks period of service by women jurors in Philadelphia has been attended with highly satisfactory results, says the Evening Bulletin. Signed and sealed certificates from Judge Staake to three ladies who have served in his court were no more significant than the oral compliments of Judge Ferguson at the end of perhaps the most important case of the New Year.

That close attention should be paid to testimony by the women jurors was to have been expected. They are conscientious, painstaking and patient in the performance of duty. But it is especially satisfactory to learn that in a case where the testimony covered a complicated business transaction the trial judge took occasion to notice the attention and interest of the fair occupants of the jury box, "something," he said, "I have not always been able to say about men jurors."

Whether the newly enfranchised sex, as a class, will take kindly to jury as a regular thing after the novelty has worn off, remains to be tested in the future. For the present the public must be gratified to know that the Philadelphia woman has revealed an admirable capacity for this important function of citizenship.

A number of women, it has just been announced, have been draw for jury duty in the coming terms of Montgomery County Court, and it is safe to say that they, too, will serve well and faithfully, as did their city sisters. The women of Montgomery County have ever answered to the call of duty along many lines, and there will be no shirking at this higher call for public service.

ATTENTION CITIZENS OF NARBERTH

I notice by today's papers, that our peaceful little Borough has been put in the category of a Metropolitan City by a recent holdup of one of our residents at an early evening hour of 6:15, when she had her purse snatched from her hand in front of her home, whether it was a colored or white crook, I do not know, but if it was a colored man, perhaps it was the same fellow who attempted the same trick on me today at noon, on my way home. But fortunately I think he sized up the situation that his attempt might be futile with a man and he turned his heels very quickly when I got after him and told him to shake the Narberth dust off his feet.

I would suggest that we should have more police officers and perhaps it would be a good idea if we men folks would form a vigilant Committee so as to protect our homes and families against these intruders and let them know that Narberth is a very unhealthy place for crooks and outlaws. I would be willing for one to join in the organization.

Frederick Herman.

made at the best and most modern equipped coke plant in the world, and at pre-war prices

The price for Anthracite Coal is, in the main, governed by the law of supply and demand. If the same law were allowed full sway the price would be higher than ever.

Legislative laws are a doubtful remedy.

Let one-half of the people of the Northeastern Atlantic Coast States turn to coke and soft coal, now made cheap by the natural law of supply and demand, in full swing, and both labor and capital in the Anthracite business will be standing on their heads in two weeks' time.

We know from personal experience, some twenty years ago, of a town of 3,000 people about 500 miles west of Pittsburgh, Pa., who then and now use soft coal, few having ever seen Anthracite, and where no one dies except from old age.

The price of coke delivered anywhere in this district is $9.50 per ton chuted in, and $10.00 per ton carried in.

Wednesday, 8:00 P. M.—Prayer and Praise Meeting. Subject for consideration: "The Christian's Problem in Multiplication."

Church Notes

The Nursery is proving very popular quite a number of children being brought last Sunday. All will be welcome each Sunday at the hour of morning worship.

The Sessions will hold its regular monthly business meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Banks, next Friday evening. The meeting will be followed by a social hour in which the wives will participate.

JUNIOR SECTION WOMEN'S COM- MUNITY CLUB.

Have you seen the first signs of approach of the Junior Section's Dance? If not, then look in the several store windows of the town and read what the posters they contain have to say about it. "Something New" is the slogan which they boast, and if the very skeptical fail to believe this possible, let them but come, and see for themselves. The Club is rapidly enrolling new members, and with such strength in numbers as it will soon have, cannot possibly fail to "put over with a push" whatever it undertakes, be it dance or glee club—which latter, by the way, has begun "tuning up." The time limit for enrolling charter members is drawing near, so that all who wish to have the honor of helping to found this Junior Section are urged to join now.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Registrar. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

A LIVE ORGANIZATION

The members of the Methodist Choral had a delightful time at the church last Thursday evening, when they gathered around a table full of good things.

Big events are in store for lovers of good music. Sacred and secular programmes are being prepared, of which more will be heard later.

The personnel is now complete, but applications for membership will be gladly received to fill vacancies as may occur.

All communications should be sent to the director, Prof. C. Nice.

Main Line Flowers Win

At the exhibition of flowers and plants held by the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, prizes were awarded to William S. Ellis, Bryn Mawr; Alba B. Johnson, Rosemont, and Samuel T. Bodine, Villanova.

Women for Jury Duty

Southerland, R. J. Scott, William J. Wilson.

While it will be a matter of pride on the part of the women who are thus summoned for a public service, it will, naturally, be also a matter of pride on the part of the men who are thus given the first opportunity to be jurors with the women folk.

It will be observed, in the case of the listing of the women, that their own Christian names are given, without any reference to the name of the husbands in the cases of those married. In order to enable an identification of the women, as far as the jury records go, the house address and specific employment, where that is had, are given. A perusal of the lists will show that women from every section of the county and from all walks in life have been selected in the same manner as men. In the list is the demure maiden, the society leader, the woman in business, the social or welfare worker, those holding clerical posts, the housewife and those who are active in community affairs.

Amongst the most prominent of the women listed is that of the wife of County Commissioner Roy A. Hatfield.

On the Criminal Court is the most important action to be tried during the week of February 14 will be that of James Bell, a young colored man, charged with the murder of a married woman with whom he was infatuated and whom he is alleged to have attacked, with the result that she was fatally injured. He then set her clothes on fire in order to hide the crime, according to the allegations of the county authorities. The burning body, half consumed, was found by another woman in time to permit of the determination of the crime, which occurred at Ardmore.

NARBERTH, PA.

Wynnewood, through Our Town, for the generous support given in the purchase of Christmas Seals.

Four hundred and twenty-five dollars and thirty-eight cents ($425.38) was the net amount returned from the three towns comprising our district.

It is a very creditable showing, proving once again that we are willing to share with those less fortunately situated. And to what better purpose could a charity be directed than fighting tuberculosis?

This was the Society's first year with a county organization, and wide publicity should bring generous donations in 1921.

The proceeds from seal sales are expended in the locality from which the money came.

Your purchases of Christmas Seals are heartily appreciated by the organization and its beneficiaries.

The Junior Red Cross, since the end of the war, has not been active in the schools until recently, when a member of the schools along the main line have enrolled as auxiliaries and are doing excellent work.

At Christmas time the Montgomery School Chapter distributed to poor families along the main line through the Federation of Churches and the Home Service of the Red Cross, and sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd at Rosemont, a large amount of canned goods, vegetables and fruit. The Lyman School filled 42 stockings and contributed 13 toys. The Haverford Friends School filled 25 stockings and Miss Sutton's kindergarten filled 7 stockings and contributed 14 toys. These were sent to children in families known to the Federation of Churches and Home Service of the Red Cross.

At present the children in the Auxiliary are taking a great interest in collecting funds for the Hoover Relief. The Junior Red Cross has already received a contribution of $140.00 for the Hoover Fund from the Lyman School and $10. from Miss Sutton's Kindergarten. The Haverford Friends School, the Montgomery School, the Hareum School and the Garrett Hill public school are among those making a collection. The children are earning the money themselves and the interest taken by the boys and girls is both gratifying and inspiring.

Mrs. G. Brinton Lucas,
